PUBLIC SPEAKING—J H D HENDERSON, the Union candidate for Congress, will address his fellow citizens as follows

Portland, Saturday, May 7th
Oregon City, Monday, May 9th,
Dallas, Wednesday, May 11th

A BRIEF ANSWER—The Eugene City Review asks whether we really mean to denounce any of the writings of Jefferson and Madison as antiquated, and as unworthy of the support of the people of Oregon? Most assuredly we do, when they contain such gross and mischievous heresies as the treasonable resolutions of Virginia and Kentucky The present infamous rebellion had its seeds therein The attempted nullification of South Carolina, under the lead of John C Calhoun, was the issue of the doctrines therein announced and justified, and every rebel at the South will today declare that he approves and defends these resolutions as against and above the Constitution We do not care who wrote them if Madison or Jefferson were responsible for their authorship, they left a horrible legacy of unrighteous, seditious and treasonable doctrines to the people which have already bitterly cursed the land and caused the loss of countless lives, and invaluable treasure We repeat, we do not believe the intelligent people of Oregon will support bad political heresies, because the party which adopted them as its platform, asserts that they are the work of men who once were believed to be patriotic, even if erroneous in politics.

MORE TROUBLE IN STORE FOR DAVIS—There is evidently a storm brewing in Dixie. The last flatboat has broken the camel's back, and Georgia, one of the stanchest defenders of the State rights heresy and a leader in the secession movement, boldly asserts through her Legislature that Jefferson Davis is becoming a tyrant and a despot The people of that State have submitted without a murmur to the gradual encroachments upon their rights by the Richmond junta, but the sweeping legislation of the past Winter is too much for them and they are wheeling into the opposition line Governor Brown has never had any confidence in Davis, and from the commencement of the war has not failed to take issue with him on almost every question touching his State The Richmond Sentinel of March 21st comments as follows upon this new source of trouble

The demonstration of Governor Brown and his more immediate followers at Milledgeville has taken the country by surprise We confess we should not have expected to see our usually discreet and considerate cotemporary, the Augusta Chronicle and Sentinel become a party to such a movement The cause of peace has been injured therefore as it is being retarded now in Milledgeville by men who pass resolves about 'terms' of peace in advance of any disposition on the part of the enemy to make peace The way to get peace is to make the enemy desire it and the way to do this is by hard knocks A musket in the hands of a Georgia peacemaker would do more to advance the object than all the resolutions they can offer in a week Nay, these last are only drawbacks and impediments, and are therefore, positively mischievous Their outcry about the suspension of the habeas corpus is of a piece of other complainings We think with a powerful foe on her North ern frontier, threatening Georgia with the desolation which has overtaken Virginia that her rulers would be more rational y engaged and would better serve her own interests and the common cause by blowing the war blaze and rallying every resource of resistance, rather than by striking at, or embarrassing the Confederate authorities by unjust and certainly untimely clamors and assaults

NORTHERN DOUGHFACES—The editor of the Frankfort Commonwealth, an old fashioned Kentuckian, administers the following to the New England gentlemen who are running the Louisville Journal

The Journal still harps upon "Araby's daughter!" It is honorably affected with the negrophobia. The disease seems to have "struck in," as it does upon ninety-nine hundredths of those of Northern birth and education and abolition proclivities who seek homes in States where negro slavery is recognised and regulated by municipal laws No sooner are they domiciled among us than they become pro-slaveryites of the most ultra views They fairly out Herod even the Herod of negro slavery, and bow down and worship the very dust beneath their feet because it is slave territory To prove their orthodoxy as pro slavery advocates they are flippant in denunciation of Southern born and educated men, who doubt the sincerity of their professions of love for the institution. Denunciations from such sources we scorn and contemn If the Journal knows what is good for itself it will cease the use of the worn out slang of its Democratic step father Its poisoned chalice can be—as it will be if it does not mend its manners—returned to its own lips.

GEN POPE'S INDIAN CAMPAIGN.—A notice, issued at St. Paul on the 9th of March by Gen. Sibley, says the programme of Gen. Pope's campaign embraces three objects—first, the chastisement and subjugation of the bands of hostile savages on each bank of the Mississippi; second, the protection of the overland route to Idaho; third, to make the Minnesota and Iowa frontiers safe against petty Indian raids by the establishment of stations of troops along the proposed line

The estimated territory of the whole United States embraces an area of 6,250,000 square miles. The new States embrace 1,861,421

Letter from San Francisco

SAN FRANCISCO April 25, 1864.

The Brother Jonathan arrived here on Saturday at 5 P M, having had a fine run of 51 hours from the Bar She brought the Web foot delegation to the National Convention, who were just nine hours too late for the steamer for Panama

Two steamers left Saturday and owing to opposition and cheap fare carried a large number of passengers

The Alta takes consolation for the great number leaving this State by saying the greatest portion of the passengers had Mrs prefixed to their names and ended up 'with child' I suppose the conclusion to be drawn from the remark is that this country is prolific in everything, and the productions not confined to quartz and stones

Banks has met with a severe repulse and if correct it is just now discovered that he is not a competent General The papers seek their usual set off for a defeat by getting up reports of starvation in North Carolina The fact is, the South appears to be in good condition for the Spring campaign and Grant's hand might when he urged the Government to put every available man in the field at once and make a full crush of the insurrection

It appears now that enlistments are going on more rapidly than ever in the Eastern States and that there will be but little need of draft in The States of the Mississippi valley permission to put two hundred thousand men in the field for their own protection this, with the five hundred thousand already called ought to be an army sufficient to crush out the rebellion speedily

The Oregonian contains a large treasure—Donahoe Ralston & Co breaking the last of shippers is used They are doing a large exchange and banking business

There will soon be an English Joint Stock Banking House started here, with a capital of $10,000,000 They will undoubtedly do a large business and safe 'slow and sure' being the Englishman's motto in money affairs

We had a little taste of Bruno manners here yesterday. Mr Tenckle attempting to shut off the wind from J Walter Walsh, editor of the Sunday Varieties caused a scurrilous article giving Tenckle rats Tenckle is a sport, and there are lots of people here who are not sports who come down to old Walsh with their $50 or $100 rather than have past events put in print Tenckle wouldn't 'ante' and the Varieties was very 'hefty' on him He met Walsh about 2 o'clock P M, Sunday, and fired at him three times, one ball imbedding itself in the old fellow's shirt which it drove a little way into his hide under the right nipple For shooting, wasn't it? You have heard of the Coroner's Jury's verdict where a man committed suicide they found his death caused by a "dragoon six shooter old Bull brass mounted, and of such is the kingdom of heaven Walsh's life is owing to a French patent revolver, new kind and of no account

Judge Pratt has just rendered a decision, interesting to your merchants as well as to this community It was in a case where a man shipped over $10 000 by Wells, Fargo & Co, from Los Angeles They gave their usual receipt limiting their liability and stating that they were 'forwarders only' The money was lost by the blowing up of the Ada Hancock at San Pedro on her way to the steamer Senator Judge Pratt decided that they were common carriers, and responsible for all losses occurring by carelessness in the means of conveyance they used, the shipper of the treasure recovered the full amount, with interest, amounting to over $11,000

DESTINY OF EMANCIPATED SLAVES—On this subject the Baltimore Clipper remarks

Many good people are taking trouble on interest by inquiring what is to be done with the slaves, after emancipation. We take it for granted that all farmers and planters will secure the services of families of slaves, as free men and women, by providing them tenements to live in, and giving them employment, and their wages will mostly come back to their employer's pockets in what they will have to purchase for their sustenance Many will perhaps resolve to have nothing further to do with the African, free or slave, and all such will have to provide accommodations for white families and come to this city and employ father, mother and children and take them to the homes provided for them on their farms The majority of men, between fifty and sixty are just as capable of effective farm work as those but half their years, and at that age their whole family can be made serviceable in the cultivation of land. Almost happy change will it be for thousands of laboring white men now to be found in our cities, towns and villages As for the slaves, most of them are in the army, and, when the war closes, they will be the makers of their own destinies Each one will seek an abiding place where it best suits him, and no doubt an exodus of the Africans to some portions of Mexico, or to the unsettled parts of the neighboring South American States, will begin ere long. Whilst their labor is demanded in this country, they will remain among us They will occupy no more room as freemen than they did as slaves, and be in the way of no body hereafter more than they have always been. In the progress of human events, however, it is natural to suppose that the time is not far distant when their vision will be directed to some 'land of Canaan" where most of them will make their way and settle.

CONSIDERATIONS AFFECTING THE VALUE OF LEGAL TENDER NOTES—The Boston Commercial Bulletin of recent date remarks

An opinion exists that legal tenders are dependent for value on their ultimate redemption in coin, as pledged by Congress, but a paper dollar's certain convertability into coin at the end of 50 years, would give it a present value of only four cents, if the interest is 6 on per cent (the new provision contemplates making that the general rate in all National Banks) Its certain convertibility at the end of 10 years, would make the present value not more than 50 cents The present value of our legal tenders is their ability to cancel existing debts thus, too, despite of (possibly) no oversight of Congress, in giving no pledge that the legal tender ability of the notes shall remain till the notes are redeemed The omission acquires some importance since the law of March, 1862, took from the notes their convertibility into six per cent bonds though the convertability was pledged to the notes as unqualifiedly as their legal tender ability should however, the legal tender ability of the notes be rescinded they would then by cease from being money, and there fur her value would much depend on the terms of the law rescinding them

Secretary Chase is puzzled for once Somebody has stolen the plates on which he printed green backs, and no clue has yet been found as to where they are! Unless found very shortly greenbacks will be as thick as leaves in Valambrosa because whoever has the plates can print Government money just as well as the Treasury Department The signatures are engraved The impression that stamps the notes also prints the "official signature It is said that an officer in Mr Chase's confidence, and who was entrusted with the safe keeping of the plates is now in Europe But the plates, where are they?

A correspondent of the Dubuque Herald says that Fitz John Porter arrived in Denver City on the 15th of February as the agent of August Belmont and other New York capitalists, to examine into the condition of the gold mines of Colorado The following day Mr McConner of the lower house of the Territorial Legislature, offered the following joint resolution

Resolved, That Fitz John Porter be requested to leave the Territory in three days!"

The writer does not say whether any action was taken on the motion

NEW YORK ATTACK—News received from the Brooklyn Navy Yard from Mobile and the rebel ram and other movements of the fleet on the Southern coast almost confirms that by the whole fleet of wooden and iron clad steamers has gone out The Galaga has been ordered to Fortress Monroe with all haste It is understood that all the vessels have received sailing orders and at four o'clock the sailors on the sailing vessels and their escorts as well as several small steamers left A large number of others are being pushed forward as rapidly as possible and will be placed in commission soon

IS SLAVERY DEAD?—As this war was conceived in Slavery the subject is inseparable from the great conflict raging the best energies of the Nation for its integrity and existence. Slavery and Nationality are in deadly strife for the mastery This powerful diversity of the fundamental governments seems a hydra headed monster with a tenacity almost equal to self existence and preservation It has a thousand lives and an imperishable vitality.

In the Senate of the United States, on the 8th of March, Mr Brown of Missouri, made an impressive speech on the issue of the day He introduced his speech by combatting the popular error of the hour that Slavery was dead The honorable Senator asserted that it was neither dead nor willing to die But struggling for being by force and gesture and treasure and nerve, that some center of future gravity with many lords under precise exception and its stability upheld in the hearts equal to the sanctity of constitutionalism and local contentance that will be swift to maintain it hereafter, if the epoch shall pass with its utter extinction"

The Senator seems to be impressed with the belief that the cruel wrath of Slavery has arrived and that to extinguish the mistletoe it must be cut up root and branch That if a vestige remains it will take root again and expand into magnificent proportions and that the cost of the present conflict will be small and treasure will have been expended in vain if the Senator believes that we cannot authorize with impunity, and that we must meet at once or in the future it will be too late On this subject he is radical in the full sense and meaning of the word as applied to Slavery With him now is the accepted time and now the day of salvation He does not believe in gradual emancipation insisting that it is nothing but the gradual consolidation of the hydra to the system

We are inclined to the belief that Senator Brown occupies the true position when he says that "your Republican party or your Union party, or your Democratic party, are not meaning expressions and hide proaches on all earnest citizens As well go muster in the clothes of your ancestry You have a Radical party and a Conservative party and none other in this nation at this time We most cordially concur, and conscientiously believe that this civil strife is to end in the triumph of Slavery or its total destruction Call it Radical or Conservative there is no disputing the issue The war issues it finally and irrevocably, and when the mortal strife ceases, and the field of battle is cleared of its dead and wounded visit us the victory for Slavery or freedom will be unmistakably declared

He who declares Slavery is dead to day, is over expectant, and speaks of that which is hidden and unrevealed It may be uttered with the faith that Providence willed the war as an annihilator of the curse but the hopeful utterance is but anticipatory Slavery is not dead, but strong and powerful It still stands up boldly in the Congress of the United States and battles the Northman for the victory It is entrenched behind the thousand cannons, and shielded by the hundreds of thousands of muskets at the command of the Confederacy It meets us at the polls in every election district in the free North and is defended in the forum and the pulpit Slavery dead? No, it is hardly ill A little good nursing from Conservative hands, and the monster is well and as powerful as before Slavery in Kentucky was attacked a few days ago, but Governor Bramlette administered it a few Conservative powders, obtained at Washington and the patient revived. Slavery was sick, very sick a year ago in Missouri, but Scofield, Bates & Co, turned wet nurses to the institution and there are fair hopes of a speedy recovery In Louisiana it is reported that Slavery is nursing under the liberal Conservatism of Gen Banks Who says that 'Slavery is dead' When we find that Brooks and Bennett, of New York, are willing to admit that the cursed blight is destroyed, then our suspicions are aroused that Slavery is playing the possum—forgoing death to avoid further hard blows Slavery has a vitality next to imperishability If a cat has nine lives, Slavery has nine times nine The slave interest in the United States is great and incalculable Cotton may not be King, but the combined interests of slave labor together with the inborn prejudices surrounding it, make its power superior to that of Kings When Slavery gives up the ghost everybody will know it. There will be no argument necessary to prove the fact. The dying throes of such a monster will shake the land from end to end We are waiting anxiously for the great perturbation in the political elements Our nerves are braced for the shock Wait a little longer.—Marysville Appeal.

GOLD AND SILVER—WHERE IT GOES—Since the discovery of gold in California and Australia, and the great increase of that precious metal consequent therefrom several very learned books have been published on the one side to prove and the other to disprove that the price of gold has been materially reduced by the increased yield At first it was maintained that gold must inevitably fall in a few years to half its price in 1848. Then the whole amount of gold reclaimed from nature and existing as coin in all the world was estimated at $2,400,000,000 The annual production was but $100 000,000, and this barely compensated for the waste of coin by conversion into ornaments, wear, and other uses Gold coin was not accumulating Then the currency of France and other European nations was almost exclusively silver, and silver coin, both in England and the United States, was far more abundant than now By the year 1853, California and Australia had more than doubled the annual production of gold—had raised it from one hundred to two hundred and twenty five millions a year The rate of increase has been steadily maintained for at least ten years, for if the mines of this State and Australia have diminished in supply since 1859, the diminution has been fully made up by new placers opened in Russia, New Zealand, British Columbia, Oregon, Idaho and Colorado So that the increased annual production of gold in 1853 has more than doubled the amount of coin in the world in 1848. It is not extravagant to estimate the gold coin and bullion of the world now, at four thousand millions, if it was two thousand four hundred millions in 1848

So large an increase in so short a time could not take place without affecting the price of gold, no more than a very bounteous harvest could occur after a famine year, without affecting the price of grain. And though this gold has been distributed all over the world, the effect on its price is none the less felt It is said that the plenitude of gold in the decade following 1850, drove nearly all the silver out of circulation in the commercial nations of the West and that the silver has found its way into China, India and Japan, where the people, for some cause which the philosophy of finance and commerce cannot explain, have a partiality for silver in preference to gold Hence the plenitude of gold in the West has enlarged commerce in the East by opening a ready market there for our silver Mexican and Spanish milled dollars, which in former times were so abundant in Europe and America, are now rarely seen, they are driven from the marts of commerce and have found a permanent rest in the interior of India and China, in exchange for teas, silks and wares These are now so abundant in the West that the poorest people can buy them It is estimated by a British financial writer, that this drain of silver East will continue for ages, and he grounds his estimate on these reckonings England, a nation which economises as much as any equal population in the world, with a population of 30 000 000, has but four hundred millions dollars of coin in circulation. India, with a population of 150,000,000, at the same rate, can find use for $2,400,000 000 in silver coin, which he thinks is nearly two thousand millions more than is now in that country But admitting that this calculation is extravagant, when applied to India alone, it nevertheless becomes very moderate if applied to China and Japan as well as India The Chinese and Japanese have the same penchant for the accumulation of silver as the Hindoos Japan has mines of gold and silver, believed to be rich and extensive; but the only known mines of China are the gold mines at the head of the Yang tse kiang the annual products of which are less than five millions of dollars So long as the interior of these nations preserve their strange individuality, resisting the innovations of trade and the customs of the nations of commerce, they will reject our gold as its Europe in and American standard of value and absorb our silver Just as our trade with them increases, the demand for our silver will increase in the East The reasons, then, that silver will long remain at a good account, though the mines of Washoe and Mexico raise its annual production to a hundred millions, India, China and Japan will absorb it all Nothing but the want of proper steamship communication can prevent San Francisco from becoming the chief factor of all the nations for the East Silver in the East is likely this year to command a high premium England and France will have had a hundred millions for cotton They must discharge most of this debt in coin, and as they have not the silver available, they must pay gold at a heavy discount, or buy the silver of America. The sudden demand for so large an amount will run up its price and the consummation of the cotton supply will keep it up.—Stockton Independent

GENERAL BURNSIDE ON GENERAL GRANT—General Burnside, at a public meeting given him at Chicago on Saturday evening, March 26th, spoke of General Grant as follows

Gentlemen, you know, at the head of all the armies of the United States (applause) It might seem impudence for me to attempt to give my opinion to the people about the merits and success of Gen Grant, but nevertheless I will do so I have known him for a great number of years Gen Grant possesses qualities which are eminently fit him for the position he now holds He is distinguished for his gallantry he is one of the most magnanimous men I ever knew he is not only unassuming and unselfish but a proper degree of modesty he possesses in a remarkably degree the quality of good common sense. [Laughter and cheering] These qualities, I think will make a pretty good General, particularly when he has good generals to deal with, because if he is magnanimous he will give others credit for what they have done, and not seek to rob them of the fame which they have honestly earned I have unambitious he will not seek to undermine innocent persons who may seem to be in his way, and if he has good common sense and good judgment he will keep each man below him to that specific duty for which he is fitted, so that Gen. Grant, who combines all those qualifications, is very apt to succeed And Gen Grant has thus far been successful, and the chances are that he will succeed in the future [Thunders of applause] He is to leave the West for the present and take temporary command of the Eastern army and without saying anything to the disgrace of the Generals who have heretofore commanded the Eastern army, I think he will infuse into that army a degree of confidence which it has not felt for some time, because success always carries with it confidence, and that is what they want Inasmuch as he has been successful heretofore he will have the confidence of the army, and possessing the qualifications which I think he has, it seems to me we can all go home to night feeling that success will attend the efforts of Gen Grant in the disposition of military affairs in the armies of the United States during this campaign [Cheers] At all events, every loyal and honest heart will go home to night sincerely and devoutly hoping that he may strengthen the hands of our armies and that he will be enabled during the coming campaign to crush out this infernal rebellion which has threatened so long to ruin and disrupt the Government we love so well [Cheers]

AN EXTENSIVE PROGRAMME — WHAT THE REBELS PROPOSE TO DO—The Montgomery (Ala.,) Mail of a recent date says

Early in the coming Spring, with our trans-Mississippi army, we must invade Missouri, and with Gen Lee's army we must invade Ohio, and with Gen Johnston's army move through Kentucky and Tennessee into Indiana and Illinois, without this, if we remain at home, and attempt to defend a thousand points from a thousand attacks from an enemy commanding our seaboard and navigable rivers, with ample means for transforming their armies where they choose, and with every part of our territory assailable to cavalry raids, our agriculture will be ruined and our manufactures will be destroyed.

Let us invade them with our whole force. Missouri, Kentucky, Maryland, and the "Copperheads" will swell our ranks Let us go and take what we need The army will receive the order "Forward to the North," with a shout There let them stay until our ruthless invaders call for peace Better die there with arms in our hands than starve here or expire in chains The best protection we can give those we leave behind will be to get the helpless of the North as hostages in our power

If our trans-Mississippi army advances upon St. Louis, and the Virginia army upon Pittsburg and Ohio and Pennsylvania unless the whole Federal army is withdrawn from the South to defend Ohio and Missouri, Pittsburg, Cincinnati and Chicago will be captured by General Lee, and Ohio, Indiana and Illinois will be overrun by our forces, and Missouri will be rescued But if the Federal army should not be withdrawn, as it will be or else, if it should be greatly weakened to defend St Louis and Pittsburg, General Johnson can without difficulty advance to the Ohio, and liberate Tennessee and Kentucky It is perfectly clear that the invasion of the North will effect those primo objects

1 It will free the whole South from the presence of the Federal army The militia garrisons and our troops not in condition to march can protect our home against the small force they may have to harass us

2 It will supply us with all the horses, equipments, clothing and articles of every kind needed by our soldiers

3 The retaliatory infliction of the horrors of war will make the North desire peace, and make foreign nations see that we have the power to annoy our enemy and dispose them to recognize us

4 It will double our army instead of depleting it.

5 It will end the war in our favor in one year

Mr. R. Hockaday stated that he was induced to try Dr. Wm. Hall's Balsam for the Lungs from the recommendation of others He gave it to a child very much troubled with the whooping cough, and says it is the best medicine of medicines Mr. James N. Harden of Rock Castle wished it proclaimed everywhere that his daughter, aged sixteen years, was severely afflicted with cough and bleeding at the lungs for seven months She was cured sound and well by using part of one bottle of Dr. Wm. Hall's Balsam for the Lungs. Mr. Wm. Harden testifies that his wife was greatly afflicted with cough and suffering much with pain in her breast and side; also her little daughter, aged two years had so greatly suffered with phthisic that her life was despaired of Both mother and daughter found immediate relief in using Dr. Wm. Hall's Balsam for the Lungs These are a few of the many testimonials I have received in favor of your great Lung Remedy, and if you desire, I can send many more which have come to my knowledge Respectfully yours, I D SMITH, Richmond Ky July 15 1863 Sold by REDINGTON & CO 416 and 418 Front street San Francisco, who are also agents for the Pacific Coast for the sale of Scovill's Blood and Liver Syrup, and we would direct the attention of those who suffer from scrofula or any other impurity of the blood to Scovill's Blood and Liver Syrup, as it will cleanse the blood and permanently eradicate from the system the cause of the disease, thereby restoring health and vivacity to the system. Scovill's Blood and Liver Syrup is compounded upon scientific principles and with great care. We do not pretend it is a cure all for that in all cases and under all circumstances It is absolutely infallible Common sense teaches us that the day of Miracles has passed, but science and facts remain, and on the strength of these we call attention to Scovill's Blood and Liver Syrup The noble science of medicine is controlled by the same powers which govern the entire world Were the erotic patients simply to take this medicine for about two months and exercise from it but very little good for unless persevered in the money expended for it is comparatively thrown away, nobody is benefited, the disease remains uncured, and the reputation of the medicine is injured The action of Scovill's Blood and Liver Syrup is through the secretion of the absorbent vessels, which consists in receiving or taking up certain substances known as virus or poisonous principles, and removing them from the diseased parts through the secretions and excretions, until they are carried from the system at the same time good blood is transported through the vessels to the diseased parts of the body REDINGTON & CO, Agents, 416 and 418 Front street San Francisco, and for sale by all Druggists

MEETING OF THE COMMON COUNCIL.—The usual weekly meeting of the Common Council was held last night; Mr. McCraken, President of the Board, being absent, Councilman Frazer was called to the Chair.

Councilmen present: Messrs. Elfelt, Frazer, Goodenough, Gradon, Hurgren, Robertson and Starr.

Minutes of the last meeting were read and approved.

Two petitions were received asking for the improvement of certain streets which were referred to the committee on streets and public property.

The committee to whom was referred the construction of a sewer from the crossing of Fifth and Columbia streets, to the big gulch between Second and Third streets, reported favorable to the project.

On motion the committee on fire and water, with the Chief Engineer, were instructed to purchase seventy-five feet of rubber leading hose for Multnomah Engine Co. No. 2.

On motion the Street Commissioner was instructed to enforce the first section of ordinance No. 142, relative to the removal of obstructions from the streets, and the repairing of streets and side walks.

The following bills were ordered to be paid: Robert Pittock, rent of Engine room $30; H. L. Hoyt, City Marshal, $73 45; Gas Company, $11 50; T M Clayfoot, $3; Mich. Gaben $10 50.

The following bills were referred to the committee on accounts and current expenses: Gas Company $166,50; Mrs. Thayer, $12.

A bill of J. F. McCoy, $26 60 was referred to the judiciary committee.

A bill of Wm. Winnie, $422 40 was referred to the committee on streets and public property.

FARMING IMPLEMENTS.—Knapp, Burrell & Co. have received a large invoice of agricultural implements by the bark Almy, among them several reapers, mowers and threshing machines. They come direct from the makers in the East, and the next vessel that is to arrive here from San Francisco will bring a much larger lot than has yet arrived. The introduction of machines for carrying on the business of agriculture, in this State, should to a very great extent increase operations, as the high price of labor has heretofore been the principal argument used in excusing the lack of cultivation. We know that the excitement attending the gold discoveries have made it hard for the owners of land to obtain help" in the time of harvest, when it is most needed, and for that reason thousands of acres have been left untouched, that for years might have been yielding a handsome reward for the toil of some industrious farmer, and with much more certainty than that of a gold chase. We are glad to notice any substantial improvement, that is calculated to result to the advantage, or increase the prosperity of our people, and if farmers will persist in leaving their homes annually, in pursuit of treasures that enricheth them not, we hope such implements as we have mentioned may prove to be available substitutes.

IMPORTANT TO MARINERS.—A correspondent at Astoria furnishes us with the following paper, which was picked up at Elk Creek, about 25 miles south of the Columbia river, on the 3d day of March, 1864, by Edward Garvais, a half-breed. It was in a black glass bottle:

"Name on board the bark Franko—this was dropped on the [illegible]th day of August, at 5:30 P. M., civil time—[illegible] A. D. 1863: 18 days from Honolulu, bound for San [illegible] in latitude 40 deg. 30 min. N., and longitude [illegible] min. W. All well on board.

"The finder will please report when, and where found.

JOHN PATY, Master.

"P. S.—We have had a head wind almost ever since leaving Honolulu, and have now a strong head wind."

We give as it will be of importance to mariners in showing the set of the current, and carry out the request of Captain Paty.

OREGON CITY ELECTION.—The municipal [illegible] passed off at Oregon City on Monday last very quietly. The Union ticket was elected with but three dissenting votes:

For Mayor, Forbes Barclay; Recorder, Jos. D. [illegible]; City Treasurer, W. C. Johnson; Assessor and Collector, W. P. Burns; City Attorney, W. C. [illegible]; Street Commissioner, John Meldrum; City Marshal, D. J. Storer; Councilmen, A. L. [illegible], Arthur Warner, George Haas, Wm. Barnes, Jacob, H. S. Buck, Wm. Whitlock.

THE WRECK OF THE OCEAN BIRD.—By a private letter from Astoria, we learn that the wreck of the bark Ocean Bird is ashore at [illegible] hook, having drifted in there. Her sails, running rigging, etc., have all been stripped off. Our informant thinks her cargo could be saved. Capt. Blake is in San Francisco, and is said to be very bad off with his feet, the rest of the sailors of his crew, are still in the hospital at Astoria.

OPENING EXERCISES.—The attendance at Forest Grove on Wednesday at the commencement exercises was quite large. The day was rainy and bad, which had a tendency to [illegible] somewhat with the arrangements. The Hillsboro band were present and headed the procession. Gen. Alvord delivered the [illegible] address, and the exhibition came off in the evening.

"HEAVY" TOWING.—The steamer New World was shifted around at her wharf last evening, bow down stream, in order to enable her to start off to better advantage, and to do this the Loyal Ellsworth was employed to tow her around. The contrast between the two steamers was enough to raise the risibilities when compared in the situation of towing.

SNOWING AND BLOWING.—At three o'clock yesterday afternoon the telegraph reported that it was snowing and blowing at Yreka. This may be considered the latest news by telegraph, as the wire was down between Jacksonville and Marysville, making the fourth break since Tuesday of the present week.

A NEW ROAD.—Barlow's road across the Cascade mountains is now open, and several hundred head of cattle have crossed that way. The drivers report having found much snow on the mountains, but finally succeeded in breaking a trail which will prevent any trouble to those who may follow.

FURS FOR NEW YORK.—Four bales of furs were shipped by Goldsmith Bros. on the last steamer, for New York. We understand they were choice selections of the rarest species, and make up sixteen bales that have been forwarded within a few months.

TRANSFERRED.—The Senator transferred a portion of her freight to the Pioneer wharf yesterday, for shipment direct to the upper country.

PERSONAL.—Our old friend Yankee Sanders, "the indefatigable," well known throughout California, and the United States generally, as the "paper man" and "show man," leaves this morning, as advance agent for Perrine's Bisonte Mirror of the War, which leaves on Saturday morning for Dayton, exhibiting there on Monday May 9th, Lafayette 10th, McMinnville 11th, Dallas 12th, and Albany 13th and 14th; thence on the Stage route to California. As "Yank," never travels with any but the best of shows it is recommendation enough to announce his name as agent. We bespeak for the "Mirror of the War" the patronage of all where it is ever advertised, it is the best ever on exhibition in this city.

SUMMER RETREATS.—Besides the large establishment of Messrs. Ellwood & Reed, 18 miles from Astoria, Mr. Lowell is fixing up his summer house on Clatsop beach, where all who feel disposed can find ample accommodations, and enjoy a visit to the sea side, and regale on Chinook salmon and clams.

KEEP IT BEFORE THE PEOPLE—That Shelby has received by this steamer the finest assorted stock of Boots and Shoes that has ever before been offered in this market. An ocular demonstration would convince you of the fact. See to it, and consult your interest.

Weakness of the Kidneys.—In the affection of the kidneys, called "Bright disease," the general prostration and lumbar weakness generally resist all medical treatment, and the patient sinks slowly, but surely into the grave. If disorganization has not proceeded too far, the PERUVIAN SYRUP will arrest the granular disease, and restore the patient to comfortable if not perfect health.

Dr. Hostetter's Stomach Bitters.—The operation of this palatable remedy upon the stomach, liver and excretory organs is singularly soothing and conservative. It regulates, recruits and purifies them. Dyspepsia in all its forms yields to its control and invigorating properties, and it is recommended to mothers, enfeebled by the cares and duties of maternity, as the safest and best tonic they can probably use. In all the crisis of female life it will be found eminently useful, and elderly persons will derive much more benefit from it than from ordinary stimulants.—Sold by all Druggists and Dealers everywhere. ap20dlm

Marching Song of the 'First of Arkansas'

The following song was written by Capt Lindley Miller of the First Arkansas Colored Regiment Captain Miller says the boys sing the song on dress parade with an effect which can hardly be described and he adds that while it is not very concentrative it would do to fight with Captain Miller is the son of the late ex-Senator Miller of New Jersey

Oh! we're de totally sogliers of de First of Arkansas
We are fightin for de Union We are fighting for de law,
We can hit a rebel furder dan a shell to mek him scat
As we go marchin on
Glory, glory hallelujah &c

See dat shove de centre where de flag is wavin bright
We are goin out of slavery we are bound for freedom a light
We mean to show Jeff Davis how de Africans can fight
As we go marching on

We hab done wid hoein cotton we hab done wid hoein corn
We are colored Yankee soldiers now as sure as you are born
When de Massa hear us yellin dey'll tink it's Gabriel's horn,
As we go marching on

Dey will hab to pay us wages, de wages of their sin,
Dey will hab to bow their foreheads to their colored kith and kin,
Dey will hab to give us house room or de roof shall tumble in!
As we go marching on.

We heard the proclamation massa hush it as he will,
De bird he sing it to us happin on de cotton hill,
And de possum up de gum tree he couldn't keep it still
As he went climbing on

Dey said "Now colored brederen you shall be forever free
From de first of January, eighteen hundred sixty three!
We heard it in de river rushin to de sea,
As it went so indign on,

Father Abraham has spoken, and de message has been sent,
De prison doors he opened, and out de prisoners went
To join de sable army of de African descent,
As we go marching on

Den fall in colored brederen you'd better do it soon!
Don't you hear de drum a beatin de Yankee Doodle tune!
We are wid you now dis moment we'll be far away at noon,
As we go marching on

Mr Nasby Preaches — Subject, The 'Prodygal Sun"

Church uv the New Dispensashun,
Jan the 31st, '64

My bretheren and sistheren I shel mark sum remarks this mornin based upon the beautiful parible uv the prodygul sun I wood reed 2 yoe the passij, but the Bible I hev is the only wun in the township, and I lent it yisterdy 2 Squire Gavitt, who sed swearing witnesses on almanacs wooden do in hoss cases, and he hasent brung it back. The skripter sez, in substance.

Ther wuz a certin man who hed 2 suns—The yungest hed a taist for that branch uv agricultooral persooits know ez sowin wild oats, so he askt the old man for his sheer uv the estate He got it, turned it into greenbax and went orf. He commenst livin high, bordin at hotels, and keepin trottin hosses, and playin billyards, and sich. In about a year he run thru his pile, and wuz ded broke Then his credit played out, and he wuz in a tite place for his daily bred. The yeen struck him thet he hed better put for hum, wich he did The old man saw him comin, and he run out to meet him, and giv him a un cote, and a order for a pare uv shoes, and kild a fat calf, and hed flour doins The oldest bro objektid 2 thess sayin "Low I hev served thee thees manny yeres, and thou never made est no splurge over me bus when this thi sun, who hez fooled away his pile, returns, you kill calves and sich" Then the old man retorts, sayin "My sun who wuz lost is found, the sheep who went astray is cum back, let us be merry"

My brethren this parable applize ez well to the present time ez though it wuz maid for it Unkel Samyoel is the old man, the suthern wing uv the Dimocratic party is the prodygul and the Ablishnists is the oldest son The south got tired and went off on its own hook It hez I maid no dowt spent the heft uv its substance, and will shortly conclude to cum home Now the grate qwestion uv the howr is how shel he be reseived.

My frends, the Dimokratik rool is to foller the skripter wen yu kin mark a pint by so doin In this pertikler case godlinis is gane, hallicloxy, there let us be godly Let Uncle Samyoel se the repentant proddygal afar orf—let him go out to seek him, ur els send Furnandough Wood and when he hes found him let him fall, not upon his neck, but at his feet—let him put onto him the perpel robe wich is royalty, and upon his hand a ring, wich is dominion, which is a improvement upon skriptor

But the Ablishnists, who is the elder sun, steps up and snis 'nary' He wuz a dam well and he wented out from us, taking awl that wuz his own, and seeh ez he cood steel, all uv wich he hez spent upon seeh harlots ez Afrikin slavry Statitutes, and suthern independence, wich last too manshund is whytid sepulkers I sent my suns Grant and Roeycrance and Ben butler after him, but lo! wen he wuz strong and wiggorus he did despitefully use them. Now that he is week from hunger, let him bridle Ef we talk him to our buzums, let him cum on his neez, let him cast off the harlots that hev sedoost him, that ther may be no moar trubble in all the land

My bretheren, we must talk him back ez the old man did in the Bible Why do you ask? Becoz he wuz alloz the old man's pet, and hed things his own way We wuz his frends and shared with him the steelins, but sense he went out the Ablishun brother and his frends hev controld things and whare are we? Eko answers no whar! We okupy low plases in the smagog, and the doggry keepers go mournin about the streets and refuse to be comfortid becoz ther cash ez not, and of we talk back the proddygal shern uv his strength, ur what avale is he tu us! He must cum back ez strong ez ever, he must bring his harlots with him—he must ROOL! Then shel we hev Post Orfices, and then shel we agin live on the fat uv the land, dodgin the cuss uv labor Brethren, let us be dillygent in this grate work, instant in season and out uv season

A collecshun woz takin up fer the perpus uv sendin a mishunary 3 Massychusits, wich yeelded 7 dolors Ez the amount wooden pa the railrode fare, it wuz voted to apply it on repares on the church, which I did by havin my boots baff sold and buyin a nu pare uv pants,

LOOK OUT FOR POLITE SNUFF BOXES — A gentleman lately traveling through England entered a first-class carriage, where he found a person already comfortably seated who soon entered into conversation and civilly offered his new acquaintance a pinch of snuff, which was accepted but had no sooner entered his nostrils than it produced the effect of a powerful narcotic, of which the wary traveler soon took advantage by relieving his sleeping companion of fifteen thousand francs in bank notes, three thousand francs in other money, besides his watch, chain and ring, with which valuables, it is needless to say, he escaped undetected

ADVERTISING — Both the English and Americans advertise very liberally in their own countries One London firm it is said, pays the Times over $150 000 per annum and there are firms in the United States that annually pay that amount Of course it results in an immense increase of business, but it pays in the end The London Times of a late date says "The enormous sum of £800 ($4 000) was, during Christmas week, paid for the insertion of an advertisement on the back page of the Christmas number of a weekly serial"

THE CLERICAL KISS — Dominie Brown had reached the mature age of five and forty without ever having taken part in this pleasant labial exercise One of his deacons had a very charming daughter, and for a year or two the Dominie found it very pleasant to call upon her two or three times a week In fact, all the neighbors said he was courting her, and very likely he was though he had not the remotest suspicion of it himself On Monday evening he was sitting, as usual by her when a sudden idea popped into his head

"Miss Mary" said he, "I've known you a long time and I never thought of such a thing before, but now I would like you to give me a kiss Will you"

"Well Mr Brown," replied she, arching her lips in a tempting way "if you think it would not be wrong, I have no objection"

Let us ask a blessing first" said the good man, closing his eyes and folding his hands "For what we are going to receive, the Lord make us thankful!"

The chaste salute was then given, and warmly returned

"Oh, Mary that was good!" cried the Dominie electrified by a new sensation "Let us have another, and then return thanks"

Mary did not refuse and when the operation had been repeated the Dominie ejaculated in a transport of joy For the creature comforts we have now enjoyed, the Lord be praised, and may they be sanctified to our temporal and eternal good"

History says that the fervent petition of the honest Dominie was duly answered for in less than a month Mary became Mrs Brown

A YANKEE INVENTION — Leuche's perpetual motion machine, which turned the heads of all the mechanics in northern Vermont, has been sent to New York, where the keenest of the Gothamites will be invited to expose the humbug, if such they can prove it It consists of a wheel seven inches in diameter, to which are attached twelve arms at right angles, and to each arm a ball weighing half an ounce These arms are all connected by twenty four cords, two to each arm, and are so arranged that the falling of one ball affects the other immediately behind it, and so on, apparently till the machine is worn out

MAXIMS FOR HUSBANDS — Resolve in the morning to be patient and cheerful during the day Laugh heartily on finding all the buttons off your shirt—as usual Say, merrily, "boys will be boys" when you discover that the children have emptied the contents of the water jug into your boots On pushing your chin with a razor, remember that beauty is but skin deep, and in order to divert your thoughts from the pain, recite a speech from Hamlet, or indulge in the harmonies of our native land If breakfast is not ready for you, chuckle and grin at the menials, remembering that a merry heart is a continual feast, and depart to your daily business, imagining yourself a sufferer from indigestion

AN HONEST WOMAN — An old lady in London, who had given permission to have the telegraph wires passed over her house, recently complained to the company that she could not sleep o' nights, the wires conde such a noise in talking Said she "I don't think, neither, sir, that you are aware of all that's said along them wires, there's much that had n't ought to be, for I can assure you, sir, that very much that's said there—and I have to lay and listen to—no respectable woman ought to hear" The official did n't tell her that the talk she heard was the sound of the wind among the wires, but he assured her that in future young women of great respectability were to be substituted at the office for the young men who formerly worked the lines

At a ball in Baltimore, a gentleman having danced with a young lady whose attractions, both personal and conversational, seemed to have made an impression on his sensibilities, asked to have the pleasure of seeing her on the following evening.

"Why, no, sir," replied the fair one "I shall be engaged to-morrow evening, but I'll tell you when you can see me"

"I shall be most happy," exclaimed the stricken swain

"Well, on Saturday night," resumed the lady, "you can see me at the foot of Marsh's market, selling cabbages"

A housemaid who was sent to call a gentleman to dinner, found him engaged in using a tooth brush "Well, is he coming?" said the lady of the house, as the servant returned "Yes ma'am, directly," was the reply, "he's just sharpening his teeth"

It is well known that the medicinal effect of Protoxide of Iron is lost by even a very brief exposure to air and that to maintain a solution of Protoxide of Iron, without further oxidation has been deemed impossible

In the Peruvian Syrup this desirable point is attained by combination in a way hitherto unknown and this solution may replace all the proto carbonates citrates and tartrates of the Materia Medica A A HAYES M D

IODINE WATER.

PURE IODINE IN PURE WATER

without a solvent This, considered impossible by the scientific world is attested by certificates from every one of Dr J B Ohilton of this city, and Prof. Booth U S Mint Philadelphia The importance of this discovery was so highly appreciated by the Faculty that it was published in the Medical Journals and its use recommended to practitioners (see American Medical Monthly July 6 1856 page 6)
